Reflections of Life

Mae Lee was born to Clifton and Eddrie Shaw on March 11, 1934, in Calhoun City, Mississippi. She departed her earthly vessel at home on June 27th, 2021. Mae graduated from high school. August 22nd, 1949, she married an airman, Jesse Lee Dobbins in Marion, Arkansas. Mae Lee and Jesse Lee continued their life together in Richmond, California. Eventually, they moved and settled in Sacramento, California. To this union was born five children- three girls and two boys. Ramona, Victor, Sandra, Teresa, and Vicent. Mae Lee was a devoted Christian, wife and mother. In 1980, Mae Lee married Robert DeVeaux.

Mae Lee was a faithful member of the church and served by evangelizing in the community. She took her Christian walk seriously. She attended Sacramento Theological Seminary and earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Theology.

At the untimely passing of her oldest daughter, Ramona, Mae Lee became the loving guardian of her two grandchildren, Tia and LeShawn. She loved and adored all of her grandchildren and was involved in their Christian upbringing. She wanted them to know Jesus and to serve Him.

Mae Lee spent many hardworking years in the skilled nursing field until retirement. She owned and operated a residential care facility for children. She knew how to brighten the day with her contagious laughter and inspirational words of encouragement. She had a fun-loving spirit and liked writing poetry, cooking, sewing, and collecting antique furniture. At family dinners everyone's favorite dishes included her German chocolate cake and candied yams. Mae Lee enjoyed having a good time with her siblings and family. In her later years, when she became ill, she was cared for at her home, by her daughter Teresa, until her death.

Mae Lee was preceded in death by her parents, Clifton and Eddrie Shaw; her husband, Robert DeVeaux, the father of her children, Jesse Lee Dobbins; her daughter, Ramona Dobbins; her two sisters, Willie Mae Shaw and Eloise Williams; and her favorite uncle, Alonzo Shaw.

Mae Lee is survived by her children Victor, Sandra, Teresa, and Vincent (Lori) Dobbins, her 13 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren, 3 great-great-grandchildren; her siblings, Geraldine, Loretta (Thomas), Clifton Jr. (Jean), Catherine, Bessie (Sherman), Pearl, Hellen, Patricia (Ilas), Esther (Michael), and Barbara; and a host of nieces and nephews.

MAE LEE

Dobbins DeVaux

While she sleeps her spirit will live on by you, her friends and family, those lives she touched, some short, some long. While she sleeps,
I'm sure there's a smile on her face free from pain.

For we know she has ascended above, like a little dove. Mae Lee is sleeping, but don't ask why. Have faith in God and that He knows what's best. Be encouraged, lean on Him and He will do the rest. She is sleeping and in a little while, she'll greet us once again with a big smile. So, sleep Mae Lee, we wish you pleasant dreams. For the light you instilled in us forever shall beam.
